SPECIAL CONCERNS

SEPTEMBER SPECIAL CONCERN GIVING BENEFITS THE IRINGA DIOCESE (ELCT)

“Bega Kwa Bega” is the name of our synod’s companion relationship with the Iringa Diocese of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in Tanzania (ELCT). It is a Swahili phrase that means “shoulder to shoulder,” describing the way in which we accompany one another in a spirit of mutuality, inclusivity and vulnerability. “Bega Kwa Bega” represents the practice of accompaniment and the umbrella name under which programmatic efforts are carried out.

At its heart, Bega Kwa Bega is a joint ministry between communities of faith in the ELCA & ELCT, whose purpose is to proclaim the Gospel of Jesus Christ, extend Christian hospitality, and to strengthen relationships with one another through the shared practices of prayer, presence and projects.
